NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE

Status of the Claims

1. This action is in response to papers filed 18 January 2005 in which a Terminal Disclaimer filed, claims 51, 58 and 67 were amended and claim 92 was canceled. All of the amendments have been thoroughly reviewed and entered.

The previous rejections in the Office Action dated 24 May 2004 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) and 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are withdrawn in view of the amendments. The previous rejection under obviousness-type double patenting over co-pending application 08/950,963 is withdrawn in view of the Terminal Disclaimer. The previous rejections under obviousness-type double patenting over U.S. Patent No. 5,468,606 is withdrawn in view of Applicants comments on page 17 of the response filed 16 September 2004.

The amendments and Terminal Disclaimer of 18 January 2005 place the pending claims in condition for allowance.

Claims 51-82 and 93 are allowed.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: The title has been changed to---

DEVICES FOR MASS TRANSPORT ASSISTED OPTICAL ASSAYS

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are amended to define the diamond-like carbon as having sp^2 and sp^3 characteristics. The specification defines these characteristics (page 37, line 29-page 38, line 1). This passage defines graphite as having sp^2 carbon ring structures while diamond has covalently bonded aliphatic sp^3 carbon atoms. The specification further teaches diamond-like carbon has a combination of the graphite sp^2 and diamond sp^3 characteristics. Hence, the claimed diamond-like carbon as having sp^2 and sp^3 characteristics cannot be diamond as taught in the prior art analyte supports. As such, the prior art does not teach or suggest the claims support.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
